Scripture Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14

Write a good one! —Brad Paisley*

It's day 2 of 2022. A new year is before us, a year like every year. It's a year through which we're going to travel whether we like it or not. But, we're optimistic, aren't we?

But, we better check our compasses to ensure we get to where we want to go. There are four points of the compass — north, east, south and west. These are called the cardinal points. The Bible reading above from Ephesians is a compass with four cardinal points, which should guide us as we navigate through life.

North: We are chosen, verse 4. Note that we were chosen “in Christ before the foundation of the world.” So this is where we stand at the beginning of this year. Where? We face an unknown future as people who were chosen in the mind of God and according to the will of God before continents were formed, oceans came into being and stars were thrown into the dark tapestry of the heavens.

South: We are children of God. This is personal. We are not children by nature, but by adoption, the apostle says. This dovetails with the concept of being chosen. All children are special, but an adopted child is even more special because he or she was chosen. Look out over the unknown terrain of 2022. Now remember that you are a child of God. Why is this important? Do children with loving parents worry about their future? Do they wonder how they will survive? Do they even bother themselves with these types of adult concerns? No! They have complete and utter confidence that their earthly parents will provide for their needs.

Now to what might be called the east-west cardinal points. These are east-west compass points, based on what the psalmist says in Psalm 103: “As far as the east is from the west, so far he removes our transgressions from us” (v. 12).

West: We are redeemed. This is possible only because of the grace of God that has been freely bestowed on us in Christ Jesus (vv. 6-8; see also 2:8-10).

East: We are forgiven. Everything ugly and unsightly has been blotted out. Our offenses against a holy God have been removed and dis-remembered.

To review: The four cardinal points of the Ephesian compass are the north-south vectors of our status as chosen / children of God. The east-west points of redemption and forgiveness locate us squarely within God's vast plan of extravagant grace and salvation. Everything we are and hope to be falls within these four vectors, which in themselves encompass God's eternal plan for us.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank you for giving me the assurance that you will not only chart my course, but be my Navigator as well. Amen.
